PARK CITY HOTEL IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Defective Wire Starts Flames That Threaten to Wipe Out Lower Main Street.

TWO MEN ARE INJURED
Duplication of 1898 Disaster Prevented by Volunteer Firemen; Loss $12,000.

Special to The Tribune.
PARK CITY, July 7.—A fierce fire destroyed the Park City hotel building shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon and would have wiped out the entire lower section of Main street but for the effective and united efforts of the local volunteer fire department, under the direction of James Byrnes.

The fire started from a defective wire in the attic and must have been smoldering for several hours when it was first discovered. The whole front part of the building quickly became a mass of smoke and flames.

Mrs. Hepkiss, landlady of the hotel, insists that she smelled something burning as early as yesterday evening and that she inspected the house and surroundings to satisfy herself that the place was not on fire. Again today she scented the same burning odor of rubber or tar, she says, and proceeded to make another search.

Two Injured.
She went upstairs and found that the flames were being quickly fanned into large tongues by the breeze through the long hallway. The alarm was at once turned in and crowds of willing workers were quickly on the scene to fight the fire. The flames threatened to destroy Main street again, as was done here in 1898.

Less than fifteen minutes after the fire alarm had sounded, there were five lengths of hose playing on the burning building, with two extra lengths of hose coupled to the fireplug and held in reserve in case they should be needed.

During the fire John O'Donovan, a roomer at the hotel, was busy hurrying about the head and hands while trying to remove his belongings from the burning building. Rudolph Wagner, a young man, received an ugly scalp wound by being struck with a part of an iron bed that was thrown from the building.

Loss Will Reach $12,000.
The loss of the building and its contents, it is estimated, will amount to about $12,000. William Miller, owner of the building, carried $2000 insurance on the place. Other losses are as follows: Mrs. Hepkiss, furniture and jewelry $500; A. Smith, a traveling salesman, suitcase, papers and checks, to the amount of $200; James O'Keefe, clothing and cash, $200; Miss Kate Sweeney, a guest at the hotel, a diamond ring valued at $275. The ring was later found, but the diamond had been taken from it. Mr. Miller will arrive in the city tomorrow at which time he will probably arrange for the rebuilding of the hotel.

ROYLANCE IS HOME; LIKES THE TICKET

Says Baltimore Convention Did Right Thing in Nominating Wilson.

DISCUSSES OUTLOOK
Compliments Former Mayor Bransford for Work on the Platform.

Special to The Tribune.
PROVO, July 7.—William M. Roylance, who went to Baltimore as a delegate from Utah to the Democratic national convention, arrived home Saturday night, and today gave out an interview on the political situation as viewed by him throughout the east. As Mr. Roylance is an original Wilson man he is naturally very well pleased over his nomination, and very enthusiastic over the results of the convention. He says that it is conceded everywhere that the Baltimore convention was the greatest ever held in the world, and the most democratic.

Mr. Roylance says that any delegate could get the floor if he desired to talk, and the crowd would listen to him. He declares that no one man controlled the convention, but that each spoke and acted for himself. It was true, said Mr. Roylance, that it would appear from the outside that Bryan was in control, but such was not the case. If he had been he would have defeated Parker for the chairmanship of the convention and he would also have nominated Governor Burke, or Senator Culbertson for vice president, but he did neither.

Says Bryan Is Strong.

"It must be conceded, however, that Bryan is the strongest and most powerful individual in the Democratic party today," added Mr. Roylance.

Mr. Roylance said that Mayor Bransford made a good committeeman on platform and resolutions, and a very strong plank with reference to mining was put into the platform by hard work on the part of the mayor's party. Mr. Roylance also added that National Committeeman Wallace was always very active and alert, and stands well with the national committee.

Democrats Are Pleased.

Continuing, Mr. Roylance said: On my return trip, I stopped off at various cities in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado, and being fresh from the convention, business men were eager to discuss his candidates. Almost without exception, the opinion was that a better choice than Wilson could not have been made and all predicted his election.

This was especially true with reference to the college men, who are as a rule, regardless of politics, enthusiastic in his support. It really means a new era in politics, and a new alignment in political affairs. All the old line Democrats will support Wilson and thousands of strong men who are but little known today will give him enthusiastic support.

As to the third party, or Roosevelt movement, I believe that Roosevelt will organize such a party if he can get the financial backing. There appears to be doubt in some quarters, while in others they believe that the money will be raised.

Nothing to Fear.

Personally I do not believe the Democrats have anything to fear from a third party. We offer the Independents and Progressives everything in Governor Wilson that they could ask for, and I believe a large percentage of them will think so too before election time.

Mr. Roylance went east June 2 to look up a market for the very large crop of Utah peaches and other fruits, visiting all the large eastern cities. He says he thinks he can market all the fancy fruit he can get, but does not look for high prices, because of the immense quantities all over the country, and caution on the part of the buyers everywhere.

Mr. Roylance says the Utah growers this season should be extremely careful in growing, selection, and packing of the fruit, and not see that the quality is very best goes out, and that they should be packed in the very best possible shape, because, if not, prices will be very low. This is a season where quality will count, and therefore Utah has a chance to make a reputation for herself, and he hopes every grower and dealer will do his part.

CANAL CLAIMS VICTIM.

Three-Year-Old Daughter of Provo Citizen Drowned While at Play.

Special to The Tribune.
PROVO, July 7.—Emily Potthoff, three years old, daughter of O. J. Potthoff, was drowned in the North Bench canal at noon today.

The body was recovered about 150 yards from where she had fallen in. She had been playing about the house and was missed within fifteen minutes after she had been seen in front of the home.

The family recently came here from Des Moines, Iowa. The father purchased a tract of land and engaged in fruit raising.

FAMOUS BATTLESHIP IN HOME STATE PORT

PORTLAND, Or., July 7.—All Oregonians, born or adopted, who could get away today, went down to Portland harbor and saw for the first time in her twenty years' existence the famous old battleship Oregon within the confines of the state whose name she bears. Also they saw the first battleship that ever came to Portland and the first battleship it is believed, to enter a port 100 miles from salt water.

The famous vessel arrived last evening from Puget Sound. As she reached her anchorage she was greeted by blasts from the steam craft that had assembled in the lower harbor, to receive her, while a myriad of launches, sail boats and row boats swarmed about all sides of her.

Among the first to board the Oregon was Mayor A. G. Rushlight of Portland and a large number of city officials.

The Oregon was sent to Portland in honor of the national reunion of the Elks and will remain during the convention period, which is from July 8 to 13.

Special 25-cent rate to Laegren and return via Bamberger electric, daily, from both Salt Lake and Ogden, commencing 7 p. m. week days and 1 p. m. Sundays. Effective July 5.

POLITICAL CIRCLES BUZZING AT PROVO

Many Candidates for Office in Each of the Parties.

Special to The Tribune.
PROVO, July 7.—In local political circles leaders of both parties, including the promoters of what is termed here the "Roosevelt Progressive" party, are extremely busy and conferences are many and often.

Colonel C. E. Loane is the only Republican mentioned here for the office of governor, providing a Roosevelt ticket is put in the field. Whether Colonel Loane is to be a candidate depends entirely on the action of the friends of himself and Colonel Roosevelt. Colonel Loane said on his return from Chicago that all would depend on the action of the Democrats at Baltimore, and since that is known he has not made a statement, but friends here are insistent that a progressive party will be organized, with Colonel Loane on the ticket for governor.

The Democrats, since the convention at Baltimore, have renewed their hopes, and from their appearances when among them they are rightly called the "terrified." Candidates for office are being discussed with an enthusiasm never witnessed in Provo in years. For the governorship the Democrats are grooming Thomas N. Taylor, head of the Taylor Bros. furniture establishment of this city. Abel John Evans of Lehi also is talked of for that position, and there is a hint in political circles that a "dark horse" is to be sprung at the opportune moment, and who will undoubtedly carry off that coveted prize.

Among the Democrats most talked of for county clerk are two Salt Lake men, W. W. Ray and Mathoniah Thomas; and the name of another man with good backing comes from Sevier county. He is Henry Hayes and he has many friends in Utah county.

"Uncle" Jesse Knight, talking of the political outlook, says he is in favor of eliminating all of the old politicians when considering nominees for office both state and locally. "Uncle" Jesse says he is not in politics for any office, but he is hopeful for the supremacy of Democracy, and to accomplish that he is ready to do all he can.

For local offices, the Democrats are talking of such men as James Bullock of Pleasant Grove and Ray Maycock of Springville for the office of county commissioner. James Weight of Springville has been mentioned in connection with the sheriff's office. So far, there has been no mention of the local post on the Republican side for county clerk, who is also ex-officio county auditor, and that is Floyd Johnson, chief deputy under the present clerk, Mark Karchner. There are a number of Democrats, however, being urged to get into the race for that important position. Among them are H. C. Jex, A. V. Robinson, H. F. Thomas and others. Julius Anderson and A. O. Snoot are trimming their sails and getting in readiness for the position of postmaster. In the event that Woodrow Wilson is elected president, the present postmaster, J. J. Jones, is a candidate to succeed himself if President Taft is re-elected. But should Roosevelt get into the race, and by some accident, the present postmaster would probably fall into the hands of either Walter Adams, Fred A. Huish or G. J. Carpenter.

George L. Higbie, Manton, Mich., used Foley Kidney Pills for kidney and bladder trouble. He says: "I find for my case no other medicine equals Foley Kidney Pills for beneficial effect." They are a safe and reliable medicine for kidney trouble and rheumatism. Contain no harmful drugs. Schramm-Johnson, Drugs.

TO PROVE BRIGHT'S DISEASE CURABLE

Many physicians are now saving cases of chronic Bright's Disease heretofore supposed to be incurable. But to convince more members of the profession on Saturday, May 18, the San Francisco dailies (Examiner and Bulletin) contained an invitation to the effect that if four reputable physicians of known standing in San Francisco would send us a case of chronic Bright's Disease (not to be strong enough to call at our office) showing a large amount of albumen and casts, a case in which Digitalis, Nitro Glycerine and Graham's Mixture have failed, with a letter signed by them showing these facts, we would attempt to return the patient in sixty days with the albumen and casts reduced one-half or more and patient on the road to recovery. If we failed to publish the fact, if we succeeded the physicians to admit it.

All these cases do not recover, but so many have that with the hope that it would convince more physicians and save more of the thousands annually dying under the old treatment, we made the above offer.

(Note: In critical cases the heart and eliminative treatment, etc., should be continued with the Renal Compound if necessary. There is no restriction.)

Schramm-Johnson, Drugs, are local agents for Fulton's Renal Compound for Bright's Disease. Ask for pamphlet or write to John J. Fulton Co., San Francisco.
